IDEAL PARTY WINE

CIU CIU BACCHUS
MARCHÉ, ITALY

The bestselling Ciu-Ciu ('choo-choo') is made organically by Walter Bartolomei and his team in the hills of the Marche, on Italy's Adriatic coast. His wines are among our greatest discoveries, offering Mediterranean flair and flavour at a price that makes them accessible to all. This Italian red has delicious ripe fruit on the palate - raspberry and cherry - with hints of liquorice, ending off with a lovely savoury and mint finish.

IDEAL PARTY WINE

MILLET COLOMBARD/UGNI BLANC
COTES DE GASCOGNE, FRANCE

Southwest France is the new alternative to Chile for the best value white wines. Here the land is less expensive and it is perhaps embracing technology quicker than some of the traditional appellations. Colombard makes this wine quite aromatic with floral tones on the nose, lots of freshness from the Ugni Blanc leading to a citrus finish. Great value especially for a crowd.

A CHRISTMAS TREAT

CHATEAU PUY-CASTERA HAUT-MÉDOC
BORDEAUX, FRANCE

Located between Pauillac and Saint-Estèphe, the 28-hectare Château Puy Castera vineyard is owned by Alix Marès, a very dynamic young woman who is a fully qualified agronomic engineer. Alix follows the traditional Médoc methods of wine-making. She deserves huge plaudits for producing this wonderful medium bodied red wine. It cleanses the palate with berries and tobacco flavours, and soft tannins.

A CHRISTMAS TREAT

DOMAINE CHRISTIAN MOREAU CHABLIS
BURGUNDY, FRANCE

Picturesque Chablis village with its Romanesque towers and quiet, narrow streets is the home of Christian Moreau and his son Fabien. The domaine is one of the most renowned in the area and their grand cru vineyards look down on the village from the fabled southwest facing slopes above the town. This is classic Chablis with a fresh, flinty and lively nose of lemon and green apple which follow onto the palate with a lovely twist and a zesty finish.
